

Keith Orchard

Veteran Social Worker and Former Teacher
Exceptional Trainer and Coach
Childhood Welfare Expert

Look up “child advocate” in the dictionary and you’ll find Keith Orchard’s photograph.

From a wide range of positions, Keith has anchored his professional services to supporting the families, organizations, and systems that care for our community’s children. Kristin Souers and Pete Hall, co-authors of Fostering Resilient Learners: Strategies for Creating a Trauma-Sensitive Classroom (ASCD, 2016) and Relationship, Responsibility, and Regulation: Trauma-invested practices for fostering resilient learners (ASCD, 2018), are proud to partner with Keith in providing professional development and consultation support to teachers, education staff, counselors, caregiving organizations, and families across the country.

A licensed clinical social worker, Keith serves as the Regional Trainer for Child Welfare with in North Idaho. He was formerly an environmental educator in the Peace Corps, wilderness therapy guide, senior clinician at Idaho Youth Ranch, adjunct faculty at Eastern Washington University, clinical supervisor of the Family Advocate Program at the Marine Corps Base in Hawai’i, and a classroom teacher in Redmond Washington.

“This was the most informative and professionally relevant session I have ever attended. Thank you so much!”

Samantha S., Teacher

“I wish ALL teachers could hear your message.”

Dale L., Assistant Superintendent

From his passionate keynote addresses and practical workshops to personal coaching and tailored support, Keith’s warm and caring personality shines. Insightful, open, and patient, Keith’s message resonates in a very real, very practical way.
